PRESIDENT ADDRESSES JOINT SESSION

Tells Legislators Developments Depend on Passing Legislation He Proposes and on Whether If Enacted It Will Be Effective to Prevent a Strike Already Called to Take Effect on Labor Day, September 4.

Washington, Aug. 29.—President Wilson laying the railway strike situation before congress today with recommendations for legislation advanced the crisis to a stage where the next developments depend upon two points. They are:

Whether the legislation he proposes can be passed.

If enacted, will it be effective to prevent a strike already called for 7 a. m. September 4?

Neither of these questions can be answered tonight.

Brotherhood men themselves, announcing their intention to fight certain portions of the president's program, are at loggerheads over whether its enactment would prevent the strike.

President Wilson's plan in the main think it would make it difficult for the strike to begin.

Meanwhile, although negotiations between the employers and men were broken off today by the rejection of the railway president's latest proposal for arbitration, President Wilson is continuing his efforts to bring the two sides together on some form of agreement.

Efforts which might be well described as almost superhuman are being exerted to that end tonight.

When the brotherhood leaders this morning rejected the latest proposal of the railroads and definitely set the strike for Labor day without further notice, President Wilson decided to lay the whole situation before congress.

PRESIDENT ADDRESSES JOINT SESSION.

Before a joint session of the house and senate and with a solemn recital of the distress a disastrous strike would bring to the country, the president proposed a plan of legislation. This is the proposal in his own language:

First.—Immediate provision for the enlargement and administrative reorganization of the interstate commerce commission along the lines embodied in the bill recently passed by the house of representatives and now awaiting action by the senate in order that the commission may be enabled to deal with the many great and various duties now devolving upon it with a promptness and a thoroughness which are with its present constitution and means of action practically impossible.

Second.—The establishment of an eight-hour day as the legal basis for the work of and wages in the employment of all railway employees who are actually engaged in the work of operating the railroads.

Chicago Freight Handlers Are Preparing to Strike Today Unless Demands Are Granted

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Chicago, the greatest railway center of the world, fought in the face of local difficulties today to transfer thousands of cars of freight in time for the cars to reach their destination ahead of September 2, the date declared by many western railroads tonight for an embargo on perishable freight.

A strike of freight handlers in the local yards of major railroads which threatened to become general within twenty-four hours, hit Chicago just at the time railway officials were swamped with transfer traffic.

By vote of the International Brotherhood of Freight Handlers' local unions tonight it was determined to call a general strike at noon tomorrow of all freight handlers in Chicago, numbering about 6,000, unless concessions demanded are granted before that hour. Approximately 1,500 men quit work yesterday and today.

The twenty-seven railroads entering Chicago have been preparing, however, to handle an enormous amount of freight east and west within the next week.

The embargo on perishable freight, railway officials said, will principally affect livestock. Exceptionally heavy receipts of hogs, cattle and sheep at the Chicago, Kansas City, East St. Louis and other markets are anticipated before the embargo becomes effective.

At a conference called by the Illinois Manufacturers' association and attended by representatives of similar associations from many states, resolutions were introduced urging that President Wilson insist on the principle of arbitration.

Railway officials planning to operate trains with non-union men or non-strikers within the railway brotherhoods' membership in event of strike. Some officials said they would operate 25 per cent of the regular traffic out of Chicago from the minute a strike was called and keep up this service until it was practically normal within thirty days.

Chicago officials prepared for possible trouble in event of a strike. Police Chief Healy today issued orders cancelling all furloughs of members of his force and recalling all members who are on furloughs.

The encampment was fully opened today and with tonight's meeting the way was cleared for the annual parade tomorrow and the business meetings to follow. An attempt to have the next encampment of the Grand Army held at Houston, Texas, is being made by Colonel James Hagen of that city, a past department commander. Colonel Hagen is waging a spirited campaign in behalf of the southern city, which is further south than any of the previous encampments have been held.

Grand Army of the Republic Begin 15th Annual Encampment

Kansas City, Aug. 29.—The assembled veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, crowding into convention hall tonight, held the first public meeting of the fiftieth annual encampment. Speeches of welcome were made by Governor Arthur Capper of Kansas and Mayor George H. Edwards of Kansas City, to which replies were made by Captain Elias R. Monfort of Cincinnati, the commander-in-chief, and the presidents of the eight organizations affiliated with the war survivors' organization.

TEXAS NEEDS 10,000 MORE CARS TO HANDLE COTTON SITUATION

San Antonio, Aug. 29.—Railroads report a shortage of several thousand cars to haul cotton from the southwestern section of Texas, with an increasing demand for equipment. It is estimated that 10,000 cars could be used transporting the cotton crop from this portion of the state. Coal cars and cattle cars are being used. Railroad officials say the rush of cotton is due primarily to the price being paid for the staple and also because of the threatened railroad strike. More than 15,000 Mexicans have been employed in the fields picking cotton and there is a shortage of labor complained of.

KING FERDINAND TAKES PERSONAL COMMAND OF ARMY

RUMANIANS ARE MAKING FURIOUS ATTEMPTS TO TAKE THE PASSES IN EASTERN CARPATHIANS LEADING INTO HUNGARY.

VENIZELLOS MAY LEAD GREEKS

Believed Attitude of Greeks as Result of Rumania's Action May Be Favorable to the Ententes and Action Is Expected to Be Taken Soon.

King Ferdinand of Rumania has ordered a general mobilization of his forces and is reported to have gone to the front personally to take command of his army.

The Rumanians already are reported to be making furious efforts to capture passes in the eastern Carpathians leading into Hungary and are declared to be fighting shoulder to shoulder with Russian troops coming from Bukovina.

While Berlin says that Rumania's attempts to pierce the passes have been futile, Vienna admits that owing to a "far-reaching" encircling movement by strong Rumanian forces, Austrians advanced detachments have been forced to withdraw.

GREECE IS EXPECTED TO ACT.

What Greece's attitude will be as a result of Rumania's joining the entente allies is still problematical, but unofficial advice to London expresses the belief that she soon will throw in her lot with the entente. A pro-entente demonstration in Athens passed a resolution saying that if the people were not heard in their demand, that Greece join the entente, "we must take counsel as to what is to be done to minimize the ruin which awaits us."

Occupation by the Bulgarians of Kavala is declared to have intensified the feelings of the Greeks, who are said to be willing to follow former Premier Venizelos in any action he may advise. Venizelos is strongly pro-entente.

NO GREAT BATTLES ARE CLAIMED.

None of the belligerents claim any great battles. An attempt by the Germans to approach British trenches near Pozieres stopped by the British was the only move made by the infantry on the British lines Tuesday. There still is considerable artillery activity in this region, however. Along the front held by the French, bad weather halted operations.

In the eastern front from the Riga region to the Carpathians, in Galicia, the day passed without momentous happenings. In the Caucasus region, near Lake Van, the Russians have gained additional successes over the Turks.

SERBIANS CONTINUE ADVANCES IN MACEDONIA.

The Serbians in the Macedonia theatre are continuing their advance toward Vardar and also have repulsed Bulgarian attacks northwest of Lake Ostrovo. Bombardments are proceeding in Lake Dolina region and along the banks of the Vardar river.

The Austrians are still shelling the Italian positions in the lower Isanzo region, the upper Cordevole valley and in the valleys of the But and Pella rivers. In the Posina valley, on Monte Cimone, and near the Avisio, the Austrians have been forced to give further ground. Notable among the gains of the Italians is the capture of Monte Cauriol at an altitude of 8000 feet.

VON HINDENBURG NOW COMMANDS ON RUSSIAN FRONT.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg, who recently was given the command of all the German forces on the Russian front, now has been appointed chief of the German general staff, in succession to General von Falkenhayn, dismissed by the emperor.

OUT OF TOWN VISITORS ARRIVE.

Just before Mr. Patterson passed away a number of out of town friends and relatives began arriving in the city and others came in during the night. A. H. Carnes, a brother-in-law, and Mrs. Charles Howard, a sister-in-law, arrived from Moody. Cullen F. Thomas, closely associated with Mr. Patterson for some seventeen years, and Mrs. George Brewer and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hill arrived from Dallas. Several of the twenty bank examiners came in last night, and practically all will be present for the funeral.

John S. Patterson came to this country from Tennessee in 1894, stopping in Waco a few months and then removing to drivers were shot, two of whom were wounded seriously, and another struck suffered a fractured skull as a result of trouble near the Pevely Dairy company's plant late today.

The shooting was the result of an attempt on the part of the Pevely Dairy company to induce its locked-out drivers to work.

About 5 o'clock a milk truck carrying six or seven men passed. The union men in the vacant lot began to cheer and the men on the truck fired into the crowd, wounding three.

A riot then began, men in the crowd on the lot hurling stones at the men on the truck who sought safety in the dairy plant.

Striking Milk Wagon Drivers Shot. St. Louis, Aug. 29.—Three striking milk wagon drivers were shot here late this afternoon by men who were on a milk truck belonging to the Pevely Dairy company. The men were taken to the city hospital. Whether they were seriously wounded had not been determined a few minutes after the shooting.

JOHN S. PATTERSON SUCCUMBS TO WOUNDS RECEIVED AT TEAGUE

State Banking Commissioner Brought to Waco Early Tuesday Morning and Given Every Attention Possible in Effort to Save His Life, But Loses Fight at 7:50 Last Night.

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON AT MOODY

Deputy Sheriff Leaves for Teague With Warrants Charging Murder—Watsons May Be Brought to McLennan County for Trial Under New State Law Giving Jurisdiction to the County Where Death Occurs.

With both lungs penetrated by a

38 calibre pistol ball, the ingenuities of medical science were powerless to continue longer the tiny thread of life which had sustained John S. Patterson for twenty-four hours and he died at 7:50 p. m. yesterday in the Provident sanitarium. The wounded state commissioner of insurance and banking was brought to this city from Teague early yesterday morning. Because of the nature of the mortal wound, oxygen had to be supplied artificially to sustain life. At first some hope was held for his recovery, but when a full examination was possible, it was evident that death was only a question of hours. Mrs. Patterson was at her husband's side when he passed away.

The body will be carried overland to Moody from the L. C. Puckett mortuary chapel this morning at 9 o'clock for interment at the former home town of Mr. Patterson. Funeral services will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the Moody Presbyterian church, Rev. J. Frank Smith, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Dallas, and Dr. E. E. Ingram, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Waco, will officiate.

BROUGHT HERE ON SPECIAL TRAIN.

Mr. Patterson was brought to this city yesterday morning on a special train, attended by Mrs. Patterson, Dr. W. L. Crosthwait of Waco and J. E. McDermott of Hillboro, who was shot at the same time the commissioner received his mortal wound. The injured man was rushed to the sanitarium, where he lapsed into unconsciousness.

He was never able to speak after reaching the sanitarium, and it was only certain that he gained consciousness once. This was in the morning, and he smiled faintly at his wife hovering over him. Toward the end his body seemed to react abnormally when oxygen was administered.

Dr. Crosthwait went to Teague on request of the governor and he was constantly with the injured commissioner from a few hours after the shooting until his death. Yesterday Dr. Haggard of Moody, the family physician when Mr. Patterson lived there, and Dr. White of Temple, were in attendance, besides other local physicians from the sanitarium.

The examination showed that the bullet entered the body just below the right shoulder blade from the front and ranged downward to the left side, passing the heart and piercing the upper right lung and the lower part of the left lobe. Doctors attributed the length of time that he lived from his strong vitality and the artificial injection of oxygen in the system.

GOV. FERGUSON ARRIVES HERE.

Gov. James E. Ferguson arrived in Waco from Austin shortly before midnight to attend the funeral.

Armored Cruiser Memphis Wrecked With 20 Deaths

Washington, Aug. 29.—Rear Admiral Lord of the navy department tonight that the armored cruiser Memphis, swept upon the rocks by a heavy sea in the harbor there today, would be a total loss and although it was expected all on board would be saved, twenty men returning to the ship from shore leave in a motor boat had been drowned.

The U. S. cruiser Memphis formerly was the armored cruiser Tennessee. Her name was changed May 26 last. Recently she has been doing duty in San Domingo waters in connection with the revolution.

The Memphis is of 14,500 tons and has a horsepower of 23,000. Her complement is 900 men. She is the flagship of the cruiser force of the United States Atlantic fleet.

Two Prisoners Escape from Federal Pen at Atlanta

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 29.—Lieut. Robert Fay of the German army, convicted in New York of plotting to blow up allied munition ships, is reported to have escaped from the federal prison here today. With another prisoner, William Knobler, convicted of using the mails to defraud, Fay succeeded by a ruse in getting outside the prison gates and made his escape.

Fay and Knobler, who was under sentence for using the mails to defraud, had been doing electrical repair work at the prison, according to Warden Fred Zerbst, and late today

Moody, where he practiced his profession.

A few years after he had removed to Moody, he became associated with the bank at that place as the active managerial head. It was while living in Moody that he was married to Miss Edna Carnes; they had no children. While at Moody and during the well-known campaign for the office of congressman from the eleventh congressional district in which Cullen F. Thomas sought the position then held by Congressman R. L. Henry, Mr. Patterson managed the campaign of Mr. Thomas.

About three years ago he removed to Dallas to become associated with Will C. Thompson, representing large fire insurance companies, legally, and continued there until he was appointed to the position he was holding when shot, the appointment coming from Governor James E. Ferguson.

Mr. Patterson leaves one sister, Mrs. Dr. Mortimer of El Paso, but who is now visiting in Long Beach, Cal., and three brothers—one at Los Angeles, another at Kansas City and the third at Murfreesboro, Tenn.

The following have been requested to act as pall bearers at the funeral: Active, Governor James E. Ferguson, Austin; Judge J. T. Sluder, San Antonio; Cullen F. Thomas, Dallas; Neff, Waco; Allan Sanford, Waco; J. C. Reynolds, Waco; Honorary Judge J. E. Yantis, Austin; George Leavy, Austin; E. H. Squires of Wichita Falls; Ira Smith of Amarillo and Charles O. Austin of Austin.

DEPUTY JENKINS LEAVES FOR TEAGUE.

As soon as it was announced that Mr. Patterson had succumbed to his wounds, warrants were issued for the three Watsons connected with the shooting of the commissioner and Deputy Lee Jenkins of the sheriff's department left for Teague, expecting to bring them back here for trial. A new state law giving the county jurisdiction in which the death occurs, although it is stated the county in which the shooting took place also has jurisdiction.

Gov. Ferguson Arrives Here.

Gov. James E. Ferguson arrived in Waco from Austin shortly before midnight to attend the funeral.

"It was one of the worst cases I have ever seen," said the warden, commenting on the guard's action.

The guard allowed them to pass and both disappeared before they were missed.

The men were not missed until shortly before dark. Guards immediately began a search of the country-side around the prison, which is in the suburbs of Atlanta.

crating trains in interstate transportation.

Third—Authorization of the appointment by the president of a small body of men to observe the actual results in experience of the adoption of the eight-hour day in railway transportation, alike for the men and the railways; its effect in the matter of operating costs, the application of the existing practices and agreements to the new conditions and in all other practical aspects with the provision that the investigators shall report their conclusions to congress at the earliest possible date but without recommendation as to legislative action, in order that the public may learn from an unprejudiced source just what actual developments have ensued.

Fourth—Explicit approval by the congress of the consideration by the interstate commerce commission of an increase of freight rates to meet such additional expenditures by the railroads as may have been rendered necessary by the adoption of the eight-hour day and which have not been offset by administrative adjustments and economies, should the facts disclosed justify the increase.

Fifth—An amendment to the existing federal statute which provides for the mediation, conciliation and arbitration of such controversies as the present, by adding to it a provision that in case the methods of accommodation now provided for should fail, a full public investigation of the merits of every such dispute shall be instituted and completed before a strike or lockout may lawfully be attempted.

Sixth—The lodgment in the hands of the executive of the power in case of military necessity to take control of such portions and such rolling stock of the railways of the country as may be required for military use and to operate them for military purposes with authority to draft into the military service of the United States such train crews and administrative officials as the circumstances require for their safe and efficient use.

Immediately after the president had delivered his recommendations congress set about to see how they might be enacted into law.

HOPES BROTHERHOODS MAY POSTPONE ACTION.

President Wilson confided to advisers tonight his earnest hope that the brotherhoods, recognizing the fairness with which he has treated them, would yield to his request that, pending action by congress, they rescind their strike order.

RAILWAY HEADS PREPARE FOR STRIKE.

Meanwhile the railway heads prepared themselves for a strike. Orders not to accept perishable freight for shipment were issued by many lines; notices were issued to prospective passengers that unless they could complete their journeys before 7 o'clock Monday morning they would risk delays. Many of the railroad presidents left for their headquarters. The managers' conference committee which has full authority to deal with the workmen, remained here. Brotherhood committees also departed. Only Presidents Garretson, Stone, Carter and Lee, heads of the Conductors, Engineers, Firemen and Trainmen, respectively, remained here.

BOTH SIDES ISSUE LAST STATEMENTS.

Both sides issued what appeared to be their last statements to the public in justification of their acts.

The railway presidents summarized the important points developed by their deliberations as follows: "A renewed insistence upon the principle of arbitration as the only proper method of settling labor disputes. The railroads have given the employees every possible consideration in this respect by offering to arbitrate their differences either through the Interstate Commerce Commission under the Newlands act, or by a commission to be selected by the president of the United States.

"An increased realization of the responsibility of the railroads towards their other employers, the shippers, the industrial, commercial and general public, which they have been made to feel, by thousands of telegrams insisting upon the maintenance of their position."

BROTHERHOODS OPPOSE PUBLIC INVESTIGATION.

The brotherhoods expressed their unalterable opposition to President Wilson's plan to compel public investigation in a statement signed by Garretson, Stone, Carter and Lee, which said:

"Since the abolition of slavery no more effectual means has been devised for insuring the bondage of the workingman than the passage of the compulsory investigation acts of the character of the Canadian industrial disputes act."

The issuance of these two statements was the final position of the forces, immovable and still deadlocked after two weeks of intercession by the president of the United States.

DAY'S DEVELOPMENTS ARE NUMEROUS.

The day's developments fairly tumbled over one another. President Wilson having heard that the strike had definitely been set for Labor Day and anticipating that the brotherhood heads would reject the latest proposal of the railway presidents, worked practically all night on his address to congress.

OPENING OF GIGANTIC STRUGGLE IS COMING.

Some of the presidents who view the whole trouble in its broadest light hold the opinion that out of it all will come agitation for government ownership and an organized effort on the part of other labor organizations, the opening of the long-predicted gigantic struggle between capital and labor.

On the question of whether enactment of the president's program into law before next Monday would automatically prevent the strike, attorneys whom the brotherhood heads have consulted and even the brotherhood heads themselves have disagreed.

W. G. Lee, head of the Trainmen, said unless a satisfactory settlement is reached no further communication will be had between the general chairman and officials here. A code word arranged, he said, for use in case a settlement is reached, in envelopes now in the hands of general chairmen throughout the country.

Heads of the four brotherhoods in each locality will assemble and open their envelopes simultaneously upon receipt of a code message, he declared. Until all of them have received code messages of some character and opened them in one another's presence it cannot be considered that a satisfactory settlement has been reached here.

STRIKE ORDERS ARE SELF-RELEASING.

If it should develop that a strike ordered prior to the enactment into law of the president's proposed plan cannot be halted by such legislation, the fact that the strike orders are self-releasing is of the utmost importance. Any attempt to force under such circumstances, it is claimed, would be futile as they declare the decision has passed entirely out of their hands.

At 10 o'clock in the morning the railway presidents asked for an audience at the white house and the president, keeping his cabinet waiting an hour, received them. Secretary Tamm meanwhile delivered to the brotherhood heads the last proposal that the men accede to an investigation, permit the interstate commerce commission practically to impose the pay the men would receive if they won their demands, and let the men decide at the end of the investigation whether to strike or arbitrate. It was promptly and perfunctorily refused.

The railway presidents then reverted to the position they assumed at the outset of the negotiations and issued their statement to the public.

The president, realizing that their latest proposal would not be accepted by the workers, told the railway executives he was sorry it had been necessary to make them good-by saying, "God help you, I cannot."

The brotherhood heads having knowledge of the president's proposal for compulsory investigation, announced their intention to fight it in congress and if possible to secure a separate vote on that and the eight-hour day proposal, hoping to beat the former and enact the latter into law. Generally they expressed satisfaction with the president's address.

RAILWAY PRESIDENTS TO POLICE ALL TRACKAGE.

The railway presidents have not overlooked any element of preparation for the strike order. Provision has been made to police every mile of track and yards of all the greater system where the brotherhoods are particularly strong. No general agreement was reached today on the question of embargoes. With varying conditions each road was expected to act for itself.

The roads will fight a strike individually and not collectively. Many of them, the executives declare, will run more than 50 per cent efficient, particularly several western lines where there is a personal sense of loyalty to the management or where the proposal to strike was not supported so strongly as on some of the eastern roads. What percentage of their trains the eastern roads can operate is guess work.

TROOP WITHDRAWAL LEADING QUESTION

San Antonio, Aug. 29.—Alberto J. Pan and Ignacio Bonillas, Mexican commissioners, passed through here tonight with their families on their way to the Portsmouth conference. They had intended to spend a day or so in San Antonio, so that the women in the party might shop, but decided to do this in St. Louis, and stayed only half an hour here.

Mr. Bonillas, sneaking for Mr. Pan, also, reiterated that the question of the withdrawal of troops would be the first to be considered at Portsmouth and said that a joint border patrol probably would be maintained. He expressed optimism over the result of the conference and said the three American commissioners were very favorably regarded by the Mexican government.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Fifteen hours after he had shot Policeman J. R. Cullerton, Howard O'Hara, 16 years old, was sentenced to serve from one year to life in the Pontiac reformatory here today.

O'Hara was arrested recently with a band of so-called boy bandits and was out on a parole when he shot the officer who attempted to arrest him on suspicion that he knew something of a burglary.

RECEIVER LEAVES FOR TEAGUE WITH STATE RANGERS

J. D. MOORE IS APPOINTED RECEIVER FOR FARMERS AND MERCHANTS BANK AND TAKES CHARGE SOMETIME TODAY.

Special to The News.

Austin, Aug. 29.—District Judge George Calhoun of this city has appointed J. D. Moore, an attorney of Austin, receiver of the Farmers' & Merchants' State bank of Teague, the scene of yesterday's tragedy, when Commissioner of Insurance and Banking John S. Patterson was shot and probably fatally wounded while posting a notice on the door of the bank, closing the institution. The application for the appointment of a receiver was filed by the state and forfeiture of charter of the bank is also asked. The receiver is to wind up the affairs of the bank and is to be in charge, pending a final disposition of its assets.

Mr. Moore left for Teague tonight and was accompanied by Ranger Captain E. R. Smith and Ranger Carl Cardwell, who has a splendid record in the Texas Ranger service. Receiver Moore expects to take charge of the bank upon his arrival at Teague. He gave bond in the sum of $10,000.

Governor Ferguson ordered the rangers to Teague. He said he will accord every protection to the state officials. He arrived at this decision upon receipt of information that the situation at Teague was ugly.

Woodmen Have Day at Cotton Palace

Thursday, November 16, will be Woodmen of the World day at the Cotton Palace. Members of that organization from all parts of the state, and many of the high officials from other states, will be present, and will do everything possible to make the day a great success.

The local W. O. W. committee in charge of the arrangements for that day is composed of Steve John Flood, chairman; John K. Strecker and Col. F. O. Post. This committee has been busy for some time sending out invitations to every camp and grove in the state to come to the Cotton Palace and participate in the festivities and prizes.

Chairman Flood feels very optimistic over the prospects of getting a tremendous crowd here. He has received many reports from various W. O. W. officials in widely scattered sections of the state who say they intend to have large delegations present.

The directors of the Cotton Palace have been exceedingly generous in the matter of contributing valuable prizes for the bands and competitive drills. $500 in gold will be given by the Cotton Palace for this purpose.

A new feature of the W. O. W. day will be a spectacular electric drill at 7 o'clock in the evening. The axes will be brilliantly lighted by electricity. The electric drill has never before been seen at the Cotton Palace.

Chairman Steve John Flood, whose address is 121 South Eighth street, will gladly answer all inquiries concerning the prizes or anything else pertaining to the day.

The prizes to be given the W. O. W. contestants are as follows: $100 for the best band in uniform. First prize

Our Pump was one of the three found to be absolutely accurate.

There are forty-eight gasoline pumps in the city of Waco. Out of this number the inspector found only three to be absolutely correct; two were condemned and the others were tested for the amount of inaccuracy and then properly adjusted. It was found that the pumps were off an average of one pint on every five gallons. On a conservative basis, the gasoline consumers in the city were losing a total of 200 gallons less than paid for. This amounts to approximately $34 per day. One pump was found that gave the consumer an extra pint on every five gallons. The inspector also found that accuracy in measurement in the hand-turned pumps depended somewhat on the rapidity of turning the handle and he gave instructions to the supply stations along this line.

Third—Authorization of the appointment by the president of a small body of men to observe the actual results in experience of the adoption of the eight-hour day in railway transportation, alike for the men and the railways, its effect in the matter of operating costs, the application of the existing practices and agreements to the new conditions, and in all other practical aspects with the provision that the investigators shall report their

conclusions to congress at the earliest possible date but without recommendation as to legislative action, in order that the public may learn from an unprejudiced source just what actual developments have ensued.

Fourth—Explicit approval by the congress of the consideration by the interstate commerce commission of an increase of freight rates to meet such additional expenditures by the railroads as may have been rendered necessary by the adoption of the eight-hour day and which have not been offset by administrative adjustments and economies, should the facts disclosed justify the increase.

Fifth—An amendment to the existing federal statute which provides for the mediation, conciliation and arbitration of such controversies as the present, by adding to it a provision that in case the methods of accommodation now provided for should fail, a full public investigation of the merits of every such dispute shall be instituted and completed before a strike or lockout may lawfully be attempted.

Sixth—The lodgment in the hands of the executive of the power in case of military necessity to take control of such portions and such rolling stock of the railways of the country as may be required for military use and to operate them for military purposes with authority to draft into the military service of the United States such train crews and administrative officials as the circumstances require for their safe and efficient use.

Immediately after the president had delivered his recommendations, congress set about to see how they might be enacted into law.

HOPES BROTHERHOODS MAY POSTPONE ACTION.

President Wilson confided to advisers tonight his earnest hope that the brotherhoods, recognizing the fairness with which he has treated them, would yield to his request that, pending action by congress, they rescind their strike order.

RAILWAY HEADS PREPARE FOR STRIKE.

Meanwhile the railway heads prepared themselves for a strike. Orders not to accept perishable freights for shipment were issued by many lines; notices were issued to prospective passengers that unless they could complete their journeys before 7 o'clock Monday morning they would risk delays. Many of the railroad presidents left for their headquarters. The managers' conference committee, which has full authority to deal with the workers, remained here. Brotherhood committee members also departed. Only Presidents Garretson, Stone, Carter and Lee, heads of the Conductors, Engineers, Firemen and Trainmen, respectively, remained here.

BOTH SIDES ISSUE LAST STATEMENTS.

Both sides issued what appeared to be their last statements to the public in justification of their acts. The railway presidents summarized the important points developed by their deliberations, as follows:

"A renewed insistence upon the principle of arbitration as the only proper method of settling labor disputes. The railroads have given the employees every possible consideration in this respect, by offering to arbitrate their differences either through the Interstate Commerce Commission under the Newlands act, or by a commission to be selected by the president of the United States.

"An increased realization of the responsibility of the railroads towards their other employers, the shippers, the industrial, commercial and general public, which they have been made to feel, by thousands of telegrams insisting upon the maintenance of their position."

BROTHERHOODS OPPOSE PUBLIC INVESTIGATION.

The brotherhoods expressed their unalterable opposition to President Wilson's plan to compel public investigation in a statement signed by Garretson, Stone, Carter and Lee, which said:

"Since the abolition of slavery no more effectual means has been devised for insuring the bondage of the workman than the passage of the compulsory investigation acts of the character of the Canadian industrial disputes act."

The issuance of these two statements was the formal announcement of the final positions of two great forces, immovable and still deadlocked after two weeks of intercession by the president of the United States.

DAY'S DEVELOPMENTS ARE NUMEROUS.

The day's developments fairly tumbled over one another. President Wilson having heard that the strike had definitely been set for Labor Day and anticipating that the brotherhood heads would reject the latest proposal of the railway presidents, worked practically all night on his address to congress.

OPENING OF GIGANTIC STRUGGLE IS COMING.

Some of the presidents who view the whole trouble in its broadest light hold the opinion that out of it all will come agitation for government ownership and an organized effort on the part of other labor organizations, the opening of the long-predicted gigantic struggle between capital and labor.

On the question of whether enactment of the president's program into law before next Monday would automatically prevent the strike, attorneys whom the

brotherhood heads have consulted and even the brotherhood heads themselves have disagreed.

W. F. head of the Trainmen, said unless a satisfactory settlement is reached no further communication will be had between the general chairman and officials here. A code word arranged, he said, for use in case a settlement is reached, in envelopes now in the hands of general chairman throughout the country. Heads of the four brotherhoods in each locality will assemble and open their envelopes simultaneously upon receipt of a code message, he declared. Until all of them have received code messages of some character and opened them in one another's presence it cannot be considered that a satisfactory settlement has been reached here.

STRIKE ORDERS ARE SELF-RELEASING.

If it should develop that a strike ordered prior to the enactment into law of the president's proposed plan cannot be halted by such legislation, the fact that the strike orders are self-releasing may prove of the utmost importance. Any attempt to force under such circumstances, it is claimed, would be futile as they declare the decision has passed entirely out of their hands.

At 10 o'clock in the morning the railway presidents asked for an audience at the white house and the president, having his cabinet waiting an hour, received them. Secretary Tumulty meanwhile delivered to the brotherhood heads the proposal that the men accede to an investigation, permit the interstate commerce commission practically to impose the pay the men would receive if they won their demands, and let the men decide at the end of the investigation whether to strike or arbitrate. It was promptly and perfectly refused.

The railway presidents then reverted to the position they assumed at the outset of the negotiations and issued their statement to the public.

President Wilson, realizing that their proposal would not be accepted by the workers, told the railway executives he was sorry it had been presented and bade them good-bye, saying, "God help you, I cannot help you."

The brotherhood heads having knowledge of the president's proposal for compulsory investigation, announced their intention to fight it in congress and if possible to get a separate vote on that and the eight-hour day proposal. They also agreed to deal with the matter into law. Generally they expressed satisfaction with the president's address.

RAILWAY PRESIDENTS TO POLICE ALL TRACKAGE.

The railway presidents have not overlooked any element of preparation for the strike order. Provision has been made to police every mile of track and yards of all the greater system where the brotherhoods are particularly strong. No general agreement was reached today on the question of embargoes. With varying conditions each road was expected to act for itself.

The roads will fight a strike individually and not collectively. Many of them, the executives declare, will be run more than 50 per cent efficient, particularly on several western lines where there is a personal sense of loyalty to the management or where the proposal to strike was not supported so strongly as on some of the eastern roads. What percentage of the trains the eastern roads can operate is guess work.

TROOP WITHDRAWAL LEADING QUESTION

San Antonio, Aug. 29.—Alberto J. Pan and Ignacio Bonillas, Mexican commissioners, passed through here tonight with their families on their way to the Portsmouth conference. They had intended to spend a day or so in San Antonio, so that the women in the party might shop, but decided to do this in St. Louis, and stayed only half an hour here.

Mr. Bonillas, speaking for Mr. Pan, also reiterated that the question of the withdrawal of troops would be the first to be considered at Portsmouth and said that a joint border patrol probably would be maintained. He expressed optimism over the result of the conference and said the three American commissioners were very favorably regarded by the Mexican government.

RECEIVER LEAVES FOR TEAGUE WITH STATE RANGERS

J. D. MOORE IS APPOINTED RECEIVER FOR FARMERS AND MERCHANTS BANK AND TAKES CHARGE SOMETIME TODAY.

Special to The News.

Austin, Aug. 29.—District Judge George Calhoun of this city has appointed J. D. Moore, an attorney of Austin, receiver of the Farmers' & Merchants' State bank of Teague, the scene of yesterday's tragedy, when Commissioner of Insurance and Banking John S. Patterson was shot and probably fatally wounded while posting a notice on the door of the bank, closing the institution. The application for the appointment of a receiver was filed by the state and forfeiture of charter of the bank is also asked. The receiver is to wind up the affairs of the bank and is to be in charge, pending a final disposition of its assets.

Mr. Moore left for Teague tonight and was accompanied by Ranger Captain E. R. Smith and Ranger Carl Cardwell, who has a splendid record in the Texas Ranger service. Receiver Moore expects to take charge of the bank upon his arrival at Teague. He gave bond in the sum of $10,000.

Governor Ferguson ordered the rangers to Teague. He said he will accord every protection to the state officials. He arrived at this decision upon receipt of information that the situation at Teague was ugly.

Woodmen Have Day at Cotton Palace

Thursday, November 16, will be Woodmen of the World day at the Cotton Palace. Members of that organization from all parts of the state, and many of the high officials from other states, will be present, and will do everything possible to make the day a great success.

The local W. O. W. committee in charge of the arrangements for that day is composed of Steve John Flood, chairman; John K. Strecker and Col. F. O. Post. This committee has been busy for some time sending out invitations to every camp and grove in the state to come to the Cotton Palace and participate in the festivities and prizes.

Chairman Flood feels very optimistic over the prospects of getting a tremendous crowd here. He has received many reports from various W. O. W. officials in widely scattered sections of the state who say they intend to have large delegations present.

The directors of the Cotton Palace have been exceedingly generous in the matter of contributing valuable prizes for the bands and competitive drills. $500 in gold will be given by the Cotton Palace for this purpose.

A new feature of the W. O. W. day will be a spectacular electric drill at 7 o'clock in the evening. The axes will be brilliantly lighted by electricity. The electric drill has never before been seen at the Cotton Palace.

Chairman Steve John Flood, whose address is 121 South Eighth street, will gladly answer all inquiries concerning the prizes or anything else pertaining to the day.

The prizes to be given the W. O. W. contestants are as follows: $100 for the best band in uniform. First prize

ONE OF THE THREE Out of 48 Tested FOUND TO BE ACCURATE

Read This Clipping

From the Waco Morning News of August 28.

Our Pump was one of the three found to be absolutely accurate.

There are forty-eight gasoline pumps in the city of Waco. Out of this number the inspector found only three to be absolutely correct; two were condemned and the others were tested for the amount of inaccuracy and then properly adjusted. It was found that the pumps were off an average of one pint on every five gallons. On a conservative basis, the gasoline consumers in the city were losing a total of 200 gallons less than paid for. This amounts to approximately $34 per day. One pump was found that gave the consumer an extra pint on every five gallons. The inspector also found that accuracy in measurement in the hand-turned pumps depended somewhat on the rapidity of turning the handle and he gave instructions to the supply stations along this line.

Saved Her Life

The unqualified endorsement of Fruitola and Traxo in a recent letter from Mrs. S. Grindle, 5918 Mignonette St., Pittsburg, Pa., will be of interest to other sufferers from stomach and intestinal troubles. Mrs. Grindle says:

"The doctors had given me up, saying the only hope left was an operation. I tried Fruitola and passed hundreds of gall-stones with the first two bottles. Am now feeling better than I have for years past. I will be glad to tell any sufferer how it has helped me, for I owe my life to it."

Fruitola possesses properties that act directly upon the intestinal parts, softening the congested waste and disintegrating the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, and expels the accumulation to the great relief of the patient. Traxo is a tonic-alterative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices, to aid digestion and removes bile from the general circulation. It serves to build up the weakened, run-down system.

For the convenience of the public, arrangements have been made to supply Fruitola and Traxo through representative druggists. In Waco they can be obtained at W. B. Morrison's Drug Company.

DIRECTORATE SELECT HAGEDORN'S SUCCESSOR

Y. M. B. L. BOARD ELECTS W. ROY CHRISTIAN SECRETARY. GIFT FOR HAGEDORN.

Membership Campaign Will Begin September 10—Will Consider Needs of Orphanage.

The selection of a new secretary and the presentation of a beautiful Waltham watch as a token of esteem to the outgoing secretary, H. Hagedorn, Jr., who has served the league for five years, featured the regular meeting of the Y. M. B. L. directors last night.

W. Roy Christian, city editor of the Morning News, was elected to the position made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Hagedorn. His selection was by unanimous vote of the directorate.

Because of his long connection with the younger business organization of the city, Mr. Hagedorn's farewell attendance at a directors' meeting as secretary was the occasion of considerable feeling. W. V. Crawford, as spokesman of the committee in honor of the outgoing secretary, presented him with an exquisite Waltham watch in a polished oak case, with a gold chain and penknife attached. He declared that the entire league felt a very warm regard for Mr. Hagedorn, and considered that he had made a very faithful secretary and has made a multitude of friends in his connection with the organization. Mr. Hagedorn accepted the token of esteem with an expression of his deep appreciation for the cordial spirit of the directorate and their kindness in honoring him with such a substantial gift.

The committee to draw up resolutions of regret submitted the following:

To the Honorable President, Board of Directors and Members of Young Men's Business League of Waco:

Shakespeare said, "There is a tide in the affairs of men which, taken at the flood, leads back to fortune." And when our secretary for the past four and one-half years, Mr. H. Hagedorn, Jr., recognizes that the lucky tide has come that will bear his ship to the haven of greater success, which has caused him to offer his resignation as secretary of our organization, be it

Resolved, that we express our deepest regrets in parting with his services to us;

That we recognize that much of the zeal of the Y. M. B. L. and much of its success is attributable to his untiring efforts in its behalf. He has been ready to respond to every call by day or by night. He has a pleasant address that has enabled him to hold the membership in line from year to year and to help hold the interest in such high esteem by the citizens of this and other cities as to make every one feel it an honor to be a member of the Y. M. B. L. of Waco.

That we assure him of our appreciation of his high moral character and pledge him our good will in every line of work in which he may become engaged, and commend him to the friendly offices of all to whom he may apply.

John F. Wright of the transportation committee reported that the Cotton Belt had promised that a schedule would be arranged so that Comanche citizens could come to Waco and return the same day.

T. H. Williams, chairman of the membership committee, said that September 10, 11 and 12 had been set as the dates for a general Y. M. B. L. membership campaign.

F. J. Trau suggested the formation of a factory zone in this city and other inducements to industries, such as exemption from city taxes for a period of time. No action was taken on this.

J. W. Carlin, member of the committee to consider the opening up of certain Waco streets, said that it was the opinion of the committee that a survey of the situation be made and then different sections be taken up. It is the plan to take an intersection at a time and work slowly toward all important streets being opened up as a goal.

On the suggestion of George Robinson, an invitation was extended to William Bael of San Antonio, ardent single tax advocate, to speak before the directors at their next meeting. Mr. Bael will also be invited to speak before other local organizations, it is understood.

J. F. Wright, W. V. Crawford, E. A. Miller, J. E. Trau and R. B. Dupree were named as a committee to confer with the management of the Methodist orphanage to consider the necessary amount to complete and secure sufficient room at the institution. A campaign for this purpose is being considered.

approbation, and determination of all to work with renewed courage for a splendid showing of our year's efforts, when we meet in convention.

Read carefully the article, "Important to Chapters," in the Annual, and you will see that chapter officers and delegates must be elected in October, and at the same time elect delegates to the national convention, which meets in Dallas November 7, 1916. If you cannot send delegates to this convention, select some person—preferably a state officer—as your proxy, for in the national convention proxies are allowed, but not in the state convention.

We want to stress this point, that delegates be sent to the conventions, that the work may prosper.

Yours faithfully,

Several Designs Are Submitted for a Waco Flag

Several designs for the proposed municipal flag for Waco have been offered in the contest inaugurated by the Rotary club, and it is understood that several of these are quite striking and attractive, as well as original.

Three prizes have been offered by the Rotarians, one for $25, another for $10, and the last one for $5, and it will be an honor in addition to win any of the prizes. It was stated yesterday by Col. W. W. Seley, to whom designs are being sent, that the three designs selected will be passed up to the city commission, and that body will choose from the three the one which they want for the city.

Many cities of the country have their own flag, and this flag carries with it a certain idea, and makes the city better known. The contest for the Waco design will close ere long, and those who wish to have a try for one of the prizes will have to get busy.

The tropical death of Commissioner Patterson will evoke regret beyond the scope of his personal acquaintance. He died in the discharge of unpleasant duty, while acting according to his conception of duty. That is the fullest sacrifice any man can make for his state.

UP TO CONGRESS.

The president has put the strike situation and its problems up to congress, with recommendations that will command the approval of the country.
The substance of these is that an eight-hour day shall be established for railroad employees engaged in interstate commerce, that freight rates shall be adjusted to this change, that the mediation law shall be amended so as to prohibit strikes and lockouts while they are under investigation by federal agencies, and that the president shall be authorized to operate the railways
in case of military necessity.

The last recommendation is vital to the interests of the government under the conditions which now exist along the Mexican border, and congress will be derelict in duty if it shall fail to instantly confer this power. The operation of railways by the federal government will furnish an object lesson
which may be far-reaching in its effect.

With this appeal to congress, the president has exhausted all means at his command to avert the industrial war with which the country is threatened. The day has been fixed to inaugurate this strike. Public sentiment remains as the only force which is now available to ward off or to alleviate the blow.

THE SPEED-ATIC.

Last week a large number of offenders were arraigned in the city court at Port Worth for speeding and each was fined from $25 to $50, according to the degree of the offense. The warning has gone out there that no
more leniency will be shown to speeders.

In Dallas special policemen are posted on busy streets to take observations as to speed and report offenders,
and the fines are graded according to the number of offenses committed by each driver.

Other cities are being forced to action by the menace to life and limb
that has grown out of the extraordinary recklessness that is being shown on public highways from day to day by drivers of automobiles.

More people were killed by automobile accidents last week than are ordinarily killed in railroad accidents in this state in a year. In almost every case high speed was the cause.

In almost every city at a busy hour,
mere children may be seen driving cars, and darting in and out between cars, with a recklessness that causes every observer to shudder. A careful driver can not protect himself against the carelessness of others.

This is a condition which menaces
all who use the streets and highways,
and calls for a rigid application of the force of public sentiment.

The automobile is here to stay. It is a necessity, and it is a grave injustice to the masses of those who employ it that the criminal neglect and indifference of a comparative few should offer a daily menace to the lives of the people of an entire community. If no other means of prevention shall be available, a way
should be found to forever disbar
from using a car the offender who takes no thought of the safety of others.

A PRESIDENT UNAFRAID.

If Bailey's view of the powers of congress were dominant, it would be incapable of action that would prevent the threatened strike of railroad employees, and could do nothing but sit idly by and await without an effort to arrest the approach and passage of industrial war. This illustration will suffice to show the folly of the fanciful doctrine that all exercise of police power by the federal government is usurpation of the rights of the state. That theory would reduce the national government to the status of a paper shell—a mere pretense, not a real, tangible government.

Only the federal government can deal with a problem of the nature and magnitude of the present controversy.
Any single state is as helpless as a child to even approach a solution of the problem. Happily, we have a president who is alert, patriotic and unafraid, and if either executive or legislative action will avoid a strike it will be forthcoming.

Venelovs advises the Greeks to spank the king and to "exercise the army in preparation for a possible rupture of existing conditions." A few years ago that sort of talk would have sent a European either to the gallows or to outlawry. Now it brings him applause. At the present rate of progress, a king in Europe will soon be on a parity with the head waiter at a cabaret.

The joint commission which is to consider questions at issue between Mexico and this country will begin its deliberations at Washington early in September. It is noteworthy that since the appointment of the commission the problems that called it into existence are receding in importance. The Mexican government is getting control of the situation, and bringing order out of chaos. War and revolution will be at an end in the western hemisphere
before the guns are silenced in the Far East.

The peanut is looking up in Texas
and it will be out of order hereafter
to refer to the "peanut politician."
Why not put him down as the grubworm politician?

Colquitt declares that the fellow who thinks he has been eliminated is going to be treated to a surprise. Nobody said anything about elimination,
but he seems to have got the idea
that Culberson majority was doing some talking that called for a rejoinder.

Since the outbreak of the war the entente powers have invested $29,000,- 000 in horses at St. Louis. This explains why the horse market has enjoyed better times than it has ever seen before. The auto has varied uses in war but it can never take the place of the horse in cavalry service.

Governor Ferguson has been planning for a vacation in Colorado, with his family, but he may have to revise his plans. It would be awkward for the governor of Texas to have to walk
all the way from the top of Pike's Peak in Colorado to Lovers Retreat, on the edge of Austin.

Chairman McGregor may still be of the opinion that Texas is ready to go republican, but since Saturday, no patriot has been in sight who was willing to raise a campaign fund to help along the ground-swell.

Editorial Round-Up

Financial Situation in United States.

There is something bewildering about the manner in which the American people have accepted their prosperity. It is an attitude that defies analysis. In some respects it represents the most baffling economic riddle evolved by war conditions. Never was there such an example of extravagant dreams surpassed with actualities received with such complacent phlegm. The foreign trade of the United States for the fiscal year ending with June was in excess of $4,500,000,000 with a "favorable trade balance" of $2,135,000,000.
Gold is pouring into this country in a rising flood, and our stock of the precious metal is more than twice that of any other country in the world. The earnings of our great industrial corporations are double those of any previous year. When predictions were made a year ago that the United States Steel corporation would make annual earnings of $200,000,000 within the near future, the forecast was set down to the ebullitions of heated imagination. The last quarterly statement of the corporation showed more than $1,000,000, or at the rate of more than $200,000,000 per annum. Companies which have struggled for years
against the handicap of inadequate working capital have piled up surpluses that will fortify them for years.
Our overseas commerce has expanded in all portions of the globe, and we are building more ships than any other country in the world. Labor was never more fully employed or at higher wages. The operation of the federal reserve system has expanded credit immeasurably, but even this expansion adds to the huge influx of gold, has disappointed the financial prophets who predicted inflation, and those which exist are rapidly disappearing. Speculation never was at least under approximately similar circumstances—was in a more moribund state. Transactions on the stock exchange range between 300,000 and 500,- 000 shares per day, whereas in the dull times of 1910, this daily average, with the people far less prosperous, was greatly exceeded. Speculation is not evident in business. There is a prudent endeavor to force forward requirements, but there are no indications of an attempt to discount a rose-ate future.

What is responsible for this state of mind? Are we afraid that something will happen? Has production overtaken demand? Or are we so stupidly content with the treasures which the gods have thrown into our lap that we wish to take no chances that may rob us of our rewards? Business goes on "as usual." The material evidences of our prosperity abound on every hand, but the psychological stimulus seems to have vanished. What is the reason? Are we merely trying to digest prosperity?—Commerce and Finance.

pened to Carranza had he been in cal storm. What an opportunity for lightful?—Corpus Christi Times.

M'COLLUM SAYS NO DAILY
FROM TRIBUNE PLANT

The following communication has been received from Senator McCollum with reference to the article in the News yesterday morning relative to a new daily paper for Waco:

Publisher's Statement.

The following statement, that appeared in the Waco Daily News of yesterday, seems to demand my attention.

According to a persistent rumor,
Waco may have another daily newspaper within the near future. The men understood to be back of the new enterprise are well known, not only in Waco, but throughout the state and country, one being Colonel Abe Gross,
formerly a member of ex-Governor Colquitt's staff, another, Congressman R. L. Henry, and the third, Senator A. R. McCollum.

While there has been talk in Waco about a new paper starting for some time, the project was apparently dropped several weeks ago, but following the election Saturday, it appears the promoters of the new paper determined the time had come for Waco to have a new daily.

The political significance of the proposed publication may easily be conjectured. It is stated that from the well-known political careers of the three men who are understood to be heading the proposition.

The above is news to me. I am utterly without information as to the plans or purposes of Congressman
Henry or Colonel Gross, but it is certain that I never discussed such an undertaking with them or any other person, nor have I heard of their discussing the matter. It is equally certain that I have not considered, nor am I considering, the issuance of a daily edition from the Tribune plant.
Should conditions develop suggesting
such a step, readers and the public will be given due notice through the columns of the Tribune.

I am at a loss to comprehend how the News could have gained its own consent to make the use it has made of irresponsible rumors without any effort to substantiate them. It was easy to get first-hand information
from any or all of the three names used by the News.

Messrs. Henry and Gross are my long-time and valued friends, and I should be proud to be associated with them in any undertaking, social or otherwise, but no one had warrant to link their names with mine as in this case.

Respectfully,

A. R. McCOLLUM,

President The Tribune Company.

Oil Experts Think
the Jones Strike
Significant One

Several oil experts have been in the city during the past two or three days,
and have looked over the situation
here with respect to the discovery of oil in the wells drilled by W. H. Jones about four miles west of Waco, near the fish pond.

It is understood that the visitors
were greatly interested in the field,
and expressed themselves as impressed with the idea that the showing indicates that there is oil right in Waco's
back yard, as it were, and that of a good quality. From the interest displayed and from proposals which it is understood were made, it is believed that Mr. Jones can get all the co-operation desired in the development of the field.

Local parties also are showing much interest in the situation, and if leases
can be secured, it is believed that it is thought to contain oil in paying quantities, there may be quite a bit of work in the way of exploration.

For the purpose of preaching to the soldiers in the border section, a work with which he is reasonably fa-

P. Witsell, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, will leave Waco Friday
for Camp Wilson near San Antonio,
where he will preach for five days, and after the will preach at other points
among the soldier boys to be chosen later.

He will be gone from Waco about ten to twelve days, and it is certain that he will accomplish good. His trip, as this work has a special fascination and inspiration for him. Dr.
Witsell graduated in South Carolina
from a military institution, and on Sullivan's island in that state did some religious work among the military men.

Dr. Witsell will take up this work with a zest.

War and revolution will be at an end in the western hemisphere before the guns are silenced in the Far East.

The peanut is looking up in Texas and it will be out of order hereafter to refer to the "peanut politician." Why not put him down as the grub-worm politician?

Colquitt declares that the fellow who thinks he has been eliminated is going to be treated to a surprise. Nobody said anything about elimination, but he seems to have got the idea that Culberson majority was doing some talking that called for a rejoinder.

Since the outbreak of the war the entente powers have invested $39,000,000 in horses at St. Louis. This explains why the horse market has enjoyed better times than it has ever seen before. The auto has varied uses in war but it can never take the place of the horse in cavalry service.

Governor Ferguson has been planning for a vacation in Colorado, with his family, but he may have to revise his plans. It would be awkward for the governor of Texas to have to walk all the way from the top of Pike's Peak in Colorado to Lovers Retreat, on the edge of Austin.

Chairman McGregor may still be of the opinion that Texas is ready to go republican, but since Saturday, no patriot has been in sight who was willing to raise a campaign fund to help along the ground-swell.

Editorial Round-Up

Financial Situation in United States.

There is something bewildering about the manner in which the American people have accepted their prosperity. It is an attitude that defies analysis. In some respects it represents the most baffling economic riddle evolved by war conditions. Never was there such an example of extravagant dreams surpassed with actualities received with such complacent plegm. The foreign trade of the United States for the fiscal year ending with June was in excess of $6,500,000,000 with a "favorable trade balance" of $2,136,000,000. Gold is pouring into this country in a rising flood, and our stock of the precious metal is more than twice that of any other country in the world. The earnings of our great industrial corporations are double those of any previous year. When predictions were made a year ago that the United States steel corporations would make annual earnings of $200,000,000 within the near future, the forecast was set down to the ebullitions of heated imagination. The last quarterly statement of the corporation showed more than $1,000,000, or at the rate of more than $320,000,000 per annum. Companies which have struggled for years against the handicap of inadequate working capital have piled up surpluses that will fortify them for years. Our overseas commerce has expanded in all portions of the globe, and we are building more ships than any other country in the world. Labor is never more fully employed or at higher wages. The operation of the federal reserve system has expanded credit immeasurably, but even this expansion added to the huge influx of gold, has disappointed the financial prophets who predicted inflation. In fact, there are few signs of inflation, and those which exist are rapidly disappearing. Speculation never or at least under approximately similar circumstances—was in a more moribund state. Transactions on the stock exchange range between 300,000 and 500,000 shares per day, whereas in the dull times of 1910, this daily average, with the people far less prosperous, was greatly exceeded. Speculation is not evident in business. There is a prudent endeavor to cover forward requirements, but there are no indications of an attempt to discount a roseate future.

What is responsible for this state of mind? Are we afraid that something will happen? Has production overtaken demand? Or are we so stupidly content with the treasures which the gods have thrown into our lap that we wish to take no chances that may rob us of our rewards? Business goes on "as usual." The material evidences of our prosperity abound on every hand, but the psychological stimulus seems to have vanished. What is the reason? Are we merely trying to digest prosperity?—Commerce and Finance.

Why Not Hughes?

Just think what would have happened to Carmanza had he been in Corpus Christi the day of the tropical storm. What an opportunity for the atmosphere with those whiskers. Could you imagine anything more delightful?—Corpus Christi Times.

The People Pay, Pay, Pay.

It is gratifying to learn that there is a more optimistic outlook concerning the railway strike situation. The men are to secure their demanded eight-hour day, while the railroads are asking for a promise of increase in rates. Both sides are to be congratulated, while Jones he pays the freight.—Laredo Times.

M'COLLUM SAYS NO DAILY FROM TRIBUNE PLANT

The following communication has been received from Senator McCollum with reference to the article in the News yesterday morning relative to a new daily paper for Waco:

Publisher's Statement.

The following statement, that appeared in the Waco Daily News yesterday, seems to demand my attention:

According to a persistent rumor, Waco may have another daily newspaper within the near future. The men understood to be back of the new enterprise are well known, not only in Waco, but throughout the state and country, one being Colonel Abe Gross, formerly a member of ex-governor Colquitt's staff; another, Congressman R. L. Henry, and the third, Senator A. R. McCollum.

While there has been talk in Waco about a new starting for some time, the project was apparently dropped several weeks ago, but following the election Saturday, it appears the promoters of the new paper determined the time had come for Waco to have a new daily.

The political significance of the proposed publication may easily be conjectured, it is stated, from the well-known political careers of the three men who are understood to be heading the proposition.

The above is news to me. I am utterly without information as to the plans or purposes of Congressman Henry or Colonel Gross, but it is certain that I never discussed such an undertaking with them or any other person, nor have I heard of their discussing the matter. It is equally certain that I have not considered, nor am I considering, the issuance of a daily edition from the Tribune plant. Should conditions develop suggesting such a step, neither I nor the public will be given due notice through the columns of the Tribune.

I am at a loss to comprehend how the News could have gained its own consent to make the use it has made of irresponsible rumors without any effort to substantiate them. It was easy to get first-hand information from any or all of the three names used by the News.

Messrs. Henry and Gross are my long-time and valued friends, and I should be proud to be associated with them in any undertaking, social or otherwise, but no one had warrant to link their names with mine as in this case.

Respectfully,
A. R. McCOLLUM,
President The Tribune Company.

Oil Experts Think the Jones Strike Significant One

Several oil experts have been in the city during the past two or three days, and have looked over the situation here with respect to the discovery of oil in the wells drilled by W. H. Jones about four miles west of Waco, near the fish pond.

It is understood that the visitors were greatly interested in the field, and expressed themselves as impressed with the idea that the showing indicates that there is oil right in Waco's back yard, as it were, and that of a good quality. From the interest displayed and from proposals which it is understood were made, it is believed that Mr. Jones can get all the co-operation desired in the development of the field.

Local parties also are showing much interest in the situation, and if leases can be secured in the belt which is thought to contain oil in paying quantities, there may be quite a bit of work in the way of exploration.

Rev. W. P. Witsell Will Preach to Soldiers on the Border

For the purpose of preaching to the soldiers in the border section, a work with which he is reasonably familiar through experience, Rev. W. P. Witsell, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, will leave Waco Friday for Camp Wilson near San Antonio, where he will preach for five days, and after that will preach at other points among the soldier boys to be chosen later.

He will be gone from Waco about ten to twelve days, and it is certain that he will accomplish good on his trip, as this work has a special fascination and inspiration for him. Dr. Witsell graduated in South Carolina from a military institution, and on Salvia's Island in that state did some religious work among the military men.

Dr. Witsell will take up this work with a zest.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! ACTS LIKE DYNAMITE ON LIVER

I Guarantee "Dodson's Liver Tone" Will Give You the Best Liver and Bowel Cleansing You Ever Had.

Stop using calomel! It makes you sick. Don't lose a day's work. If you feel lazy, sluggish, bilious or constipated, listen to me!
Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.
Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning, I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salfate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless, doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

Waco People Are Reported Homeward Bound; Fear Strike

Quite a number of Waco people who have been away for the summer, or a part of the summer, were yesterday reported as hastening home by steam in the hope of getting here before the railroad strike which is threatened becomes a reality.

Some of these Waco people, it is stated, are cutting short their stay in order to play the "safety first" game, and get back to their base before they get tied up.

Many declare they do not think it will actually come to a strike, but others dissent from this and declare that those who are returning to Waco in time are wise.

Waco Traffic Manager Is Attending Meeting in Houston

H. D. Driscoll, traffic manager of the Chamber of Commerce, is in Houston attending the executive session of the Texas Industrial Traffic Managers' league. The meeting is called following the announcement of the Texas Railroad commission that previous freight rates allowed by the commission have all been ordered cancelled. This is said to have been in retaliation of a movement on the part of the railroad to promulgate rates in keeping with the Shreveport decision through the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is declared that the Texas commission, backed by the traffic league, will carry the matter to the courts.

Total Returns in Senatorial Contest

The total vote cast for Senator Culbertson was 3,764 and for former Governor Colquitt 1,912 votes. The last two boxes to come in were Hawthorne and Waldo; Senator Culbertson received seven votes at each of these boxes, while Mr. Colquitt received twelve votes at Hawthorne and twenty-five at Waldo.

There will be a meeting of the county democratic executive committee next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, fifty-fourth district court room, for the purpose of canvassing the returns and declaring the result of the election.

How to Lose Your Tan Freckles or Wrinkles

A day's motoring, an afternoon on the tennis ground or golf links, a sunbath on the beach or exposure on a sea trip, often brings on a deep tan or vivid crimson or, more perplexing still, a vigorous crop of freckles. A very necessary thing then is mercurized wax, which removes tan, redness or freckles quite easily. It literally peels off the affected skin—just as a time, so there's no hurt or injury. As the skin comes off in almost invisible flaky particles, no trace of the treatment is shown. Get an ounce of mercurized wax at your druggist's and use this nightly as you would cold cream, washing it off mornings. In a week or so you will have an entirely new skin, beautifully clear, transparent and of a most delicate whiteness.

Wrinkles, so apt to form at this season, may be easily and quickly removed by bathing the face in a solution of powdered kaolin, 1 oz. dissolved in witch hazel ½ pint. This is not only a valuable astringent, but has a beneficial tonic effect also.

THEATRES

HIPPODROME.

"Lieut. Danny, U. S. A."

The soldiers on the border, the Mexican bandits, and the beautiful señoritas of Mexico have all been woven into an exciting, interesting and pictorially beautiful screen story by J. G. Hawks and Thos. H. Ince, and will show on the Triangle program at the Hippodrome theatre today and tomorrow. Not in any way has the life of the soldiers been misrepresented for the sake of the story, but the scenes made on the Texas border will prove a revelation to many who think that the boys are suffering hardships and privations of the most trying sort. The average American soldier is just such an optimistic, courageous, life and fun loving boy as is Lieutenant Danny, the hero of the story, as pictured by William Desmond. Mr. Desmond has starred in many Ince features since his first appearance with Billie Burke in "Peggy," but in none has he been better cast than "Lieut. Danny." Bold, daring, of the dark eyes is also well fitted to her part, that of the noted Spanish beauty, Senorita Ysobel Ventura. Gertrude Claire, Thornton Edwards and Robert Kortman are prominent in the support.

Danny's heart is fair gone when he sees the beautiful Ysobel as she steps from the cañon which he and his platoon of cavalry have saved from pursuing Mexican bandits, and in the days that follow while the women are given protection in the army camp, Danny never loses an opportunity to tell Ysobel that her eyes hold the light of the world for him. And when her brother comes with the news that they may return safely to their hacienda, the two part with undisguised regret. In a few days the stars and the great silence of the Rio Grande country leads Danny on to seek sweet Ysobel and he goes at midnight to the hacienda. What he finds here and the outcome brings a tremendous climax to the story of thrills and love.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

J. McCune, registry clerk of the Waco postoffice, will be 77 years old today. He has been in Waco for about twenty-five years and for almost this length of time he has been in the postal service. He enjoys good health and is very vigorous for his age.

The city commission will meet in regular session tomorrow, and the expectation is that practically all members, if not all, will be present. This will be the first full meeting in about two or three weeks, if all are present. There has been a number of resignations for various reasons. It has been necessary for some members to be out of the city for a while.

Work is still going ahead in East Waco on the streets which are being connected up with the public roads there. More than a mile of grading and graveling has been necessary in order to complete this work, but it probably will have been finished within another fortnight.

The dangerous banana peel is still observed rather frequently in places where it may do great damage. Some serious accidents have resulted in Waco and elsewhere from this source. The peels when thrown on the streets are a constant source of danger, and especially is this the case when they are thrown on the inclined or sloping street crossings. Doubtless most of this careless handling of the peels is due to thoughtlessness, but it carries much danger for the public.

The start which has been made on the white way fully justifies the prediction made by City Electrician E. F. Copley that the new lighting system on Austin street will be in full operation for the Cotton Palace. City Electrician Copley never lost one moment, and when the conditions were suitable for making a start he made a start and has pushed matters with a vim ever since. He has made a fine showing, too, and one which makes it easy to believe that the Cotton Palace visitors will see the changed conditions on Austin street, as above stated.

It is only a few weeks now until the schools begin opening, and the children already are beginning to talk about their duties in the school room. This is true not only of the public schools, but of the other educational institutions here.

Bids will be received by the board of trustees of the Waco public schools until 2 p. m. Saturday, September 2, for the laying of approximately 600 feet of sanitary sewer. Specifications may be obtained at the office of the school board, 1902 Amicable Bldg.

Waco People Are Reported Homeward Bound; Fear Strike

Quite a number of Waco people who have been away for the summer, or a part of the summer, were yesterday reported as hastening home by steam, in the hope of getting here before the railroad strike which is threatened becomes a reality.

Some of these Waco people, it is stated, are cutting short their stay in order to play the "safety first" game, and get back to their base before they get tied up.

Many declare they do not think it will actually come to a strike, but others dissent from this and declare that those who are returning to Waco in time are wise.

Waco Traffic Manager Is Attending Meeting in Houston

H. D. Driscoll, traffic manager of the Chamber of Commerce, is in Houston attending the executive session of the Texas Industrial Traffic Managers' league. The meeting is called following the announcement of the Texas Railroad commission that previous freight rates allowed by the commission have all been ordered cancelled. This is said to have been in retaliation of a movement by the railroad to promulgate rates in keeping with the Shreveport decision through the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is declared that the Texas commission, backed by the traffic league, will carry the matter to the courts.

Total Returns in Senatorial Contest

The total returns from the senatorial election held in McLennan county yesterday show that Senator Culberson received nearly two to one majority in the county.

The total vote cast for Senator Culberson was 3,704 and for former Gov. O. B. Colquitt 1,912 votes. The last two boxes to come in were Hawthorne and Waldo; Senator Culberson received seven votes at each of these boxes, while Mr. Colquitt received twelve votes at Hawthorne and twenty-five at Waldo.

There will be a meeting of the county democratic executive committee next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, fifty-fourth district court room, for the purpose of canvassing the returns and declaring the result of the election.

How to Lose Your Tan Freckles or Wrinkles

A day's motoring, an afternoon on the beach or exposure on a sea trip, often brings on a deep tan or vivid crimson or more perplexing still, a vigorous crop of freckles. A very necessary thing then is mercolized wax, which removes tan, redness or freckles quite easily. It literally peels off the affected skin—just a little at a time, so there's no hurt or injury. As the skin comes off in almost invisible flaky particles, no trace of the treatment is shown. Get an ounce of mercolized wax at your druggist's and use this nightly as you would cold cream, washing it off mornings. In a week or so you will have an entirely new skin, beautifully clear, transparent and of a most delicate whiteness.

Wrinkles, so apt to form at this season, may be easily and quickly removed by bathing the face in a solution of powdered axolite, 1 oz. dissolved in witch hazel ½ pint. This is not only a valuable astringent, but has a beneficial tonic effect also.

THEATRES

HIPPODROME.

"Lieut. Danny, U. S. A."

The soldiers on the border, the Mexican bandits, and the beautiful heroines of Mexico have all been woven into an exciting, interesting and pictorially beautiful screen story by J. G. Hawks and Thos. H. Ince, and will show on the Triangle program at the Hippodrome theatre today and tomorrow. Not in any way has the life of the soldiers been misrepresented for the sake of the story, but the scenes made on the Texas border will prove a revelation to many who think that the boys are suffering hardships and privations of the most trying sort. The average American soldier is just such an optimistic, courageous, life and fun loving boy as is Lieutenant Danny, the hero of the story, as pictured by William Desmond. Mr. Desmond has been in many Ince features since his first appearance with Billie Burke in "Peggy," but in none has he been better cast than "Lieut. Danny." Enid Markey of the dark eyes is also well fitted to her part, that of the noted Spanish beauty, Senorita Ysobel Ventura. Gertrude Claire, Thornton Edwards and Robert Kortman are prominent in the support.

Danny's heart is fair gone when he sees the beautiful Ysobel as she steps from the cañero which he and his platoon of cavalry have saved from pursuing Mexican bandits, and in the days that follow while the women are given protection in the army camp, Danny never loses an opportunity to tell Ysobel that her eyes hold the light of the world for him. And when her brother comes with the news that they may return safely to their hacienda, the two part ways with undivided regret. In a few days the stars and the great silence of the Rio Grande country goads Danny on to seek sweet Ysobel and he goes at midnight to the hacienda. What he finds here and the outcome brings a tremendous climax to the story of thrills and love.

GASERS ARE WHIPPED 8-2

OFF DAY FOR NAVIGATOR HIT-TERS, PORTSIDER TERRY PROVING TO BE JINX.

FIGHTING SPIRIT PREVAILS

Tars Demand Fair Deal From Umpires in Series With League Leaders.

In the first game of the Waco-Shreveport series, in which the fans for a time expected to see the game turned into an exhibition of the pugilistic art, the score favored the visitors in an 8-2 count. The game was started amid a din of cheering and cheering and the interest developed as the game progressed. The fans did not take kindly to Umpire Vitter's decision on several points. At one time a police officer took a hand in a mix-up, and later Shortstop Tanner was ordered off the lot for abusing Umpire Vitter to Yitter, who gave him orders to "beat it," and consulted police authority in the matter of the enforcement of the mandate.

GASSERS LEAD IN OFFENSIVE.

The Gassers led in the offensive, getting a single and a double in the first inning, but failed to score. In the second the visitors scored one run, Shnyder getting home run on a hit over the right-field fence. The Navigators took the score in the second, James getting two sacks, advancing to third on a hit and scoring on Tanner's long sacrifice fly to center.

Becker, of the clan of Smith, led off in the third with a single to right, Carroll grounded to Leslie, who fumbled, Becker taking second. Knaupp rolled to Leslie, who threw to Malmquist, then to first, stopping Knaupp and letting Becker and Carroll go one station each. The second scoring on Bernsen's hit to center after Smith had made an out, Tanner to Leslie. The side retired on Barr's fly to Malmquist.

TARS FIGHT FOR LEAD.

With all her vim and skill, Waco fought bravely again in the third for runs, and succeeded in getting two runs, but she was out, stopping Knaupp and letting Becker and Carroll go one station each. The second scoring on Bernsen's hit to center after Smith had made an out, Tanner to Leslie. The side retired on Barr's fly to Malmquist.

FOUR INNINGS WITHOUT RUNS.

For four innings the game went without the development of a score. But the break came in the eighth, when the Gassers had trouble together. Hill, who had succeeded Perritt in the fifth, was touched for three hits and a walk. The first man up, who was Smith, got to first on a hit through Leslie. Bernsen was given first on balls; Barr went to first on a fielder's choice, but Kuhn was safe at home, Malmquist and James went out on flies to left field.

VITTER AND HARDY HAVE CONVERSATION.

After the Tars had shown signs of disaffection at some decisions of Umpire Vitter, and when he insisted on throwing in new balls, he was called by Manager Hardy. From all appearances, some strong words were passed, which, however, could not be heard in the grandstand. Vitter took off his mask and Hardy came on the scene and Manager Hardy proceeded amid an uproar of hisses and threats and was renewed when Tanner came to bat and was out of the game by Vitter, who alleged he had used unbecoming language to him.

After the game the thought of hostility might be resumed, but the trace was permanent, and the big "idea" is the same today.

WILL BOEHLING HELP THE INDIANS CLIMB?

Joe Boehling.

The signing of Joe Boehling, southpaw hurler, with Moeller of the Washington Senators is thought by the Cleveland Indians' owner to promise a faster clip in their dash for the rag. Boehling and Moeller joined the team at once. Elmer Smith, outfielder, and Joe Leonard, infielder, went to Washington in exchange for Griff's pair.

Dallas Wins From Fort Worth, Score 5-3

Dallas, Aug. 29.—Dallas celebrated its return home by taking the first game of the new series from Fort Worth, 5 to 3. The Panthers took an early lead, but in the sixth the locals bunched a single, a double, two triples with a pass, a wild pitch and a stolen base, the sum total netting five runs.

MARKET REPORT

COTTON

New York, Aug. 29.—Cotton was less active, with excitement subsiding after the violent fluctuations of Monday, and early declines were followed by rallies, with the close very steady at a net advance of 18 to 20 points. December contracts sold off from 15.82 to 15.81, but closed at 15.73 and some of the later months made new high ground for the day in the late trading.

Liverpool showed a sharp rally after the big break of yesterday and the market here opened firm at an advance of 35 points on September and 12 to 21 points on other deliveries. It was the first notice day for September contracts since the initial advance reflected covering, but there were only two or three trades in that delivery during the entire day.

Later months eased off right after the call under renewed liquidation. Offerings were much lighter than they were on the previous day, however, while private crop reports showed severe deterioration during August and the market firming up during the afternoon on covering and a renewal of bull support.

Three private reports were issued, one giving the condition 63.2 compared with 75.2 last month, while another placed it at 62.7 and the third at 61.7, compared with 75.4 last month.

New Orleans.

New Orleans, Aug. 29.—Liquidation and bullish news had little effect on cotton today. The trade appeared willing to consider things that enhanced the price, but paid little attention to developments that were against the market.

At times there was almost a general disposition to even up over the government report on cotton and the triple holidays at the end of the week, but always on the recessions fresh buying was the cause and the result was that the close was within a point of the highest of the day, at a net rise of 21 to 24 points

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change
of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

—Mrs. E. H. BEAN, 525 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

Snaman Returns After Studying Eastern Millinery Market

Snaman's, on Austin street, was a busy place yesterday, and Mr. Joe Snaman was delighted with the showing which was made, feeling that his buying trip to New York and the large purchases made were justified by the conditions existing in Waco.
Mr. Snaman was absent about seven weeks, and said yesterday that the prosperity in New York was something wonderful, and the outlook as bright and rosy as it could well be. Money is easy, said Mr. Snaman, and everybody is feeling that this country is on the eve of a great business and industrial forward movement.
At Snaman's it is believed that there will be shown the prettiest and most stylish lot of ladies' ready-to-wear and general millinery to be seen in Central Texas, and the extensive buying of Joe Snaman was of the latest and most beautiful designs in all lines kept at this great emporium. He has rare experience in this line, and feels that nothing is too good for Waco and the people of this territory.

Lions Club to Hear Talk From President Texas Ball League

Walter Morris, president of the Texas baseball league, has accepted an invitation to be the guest of the Lions' club luncheon at the Raleigh today, and he will speak on "What a Good Ball Club Means to a City." His address will be an "extra" on the regular program.
The toastmaster for the luncheon will be R. S. Vaughan, and P. S. Durham will be the regular weekly orator. His subject will be "Loans and Insurance." D. P. Wallace will furnish the thought for the day.
T. A. Hooks will tell the Lions what success he had in spending five dollars at the Gray & Smith grocery store. Mr. Hooks received his "five dollars" from the sale of goods from the Style Shop to N. D. Naman. This little weekly skit of "Trailing the Dollar Through Waco Businesses" will be a regular feature of the luncheons.
J. P. Everett, newly elected secretary, was active yesterday in boosting for a full attendance of the membership at today's meeting.

Letter Indicates Early Arrival of Supplies for Dam

A letter received yesterday by Col. W. W. Seley from Col. W. J. Barden of Dallas, who is now in charge of the Brazos river as far down as Old Washington, advised that the steel sheet piling needed for stopping the leak which was found in the dam had been ordered and that he hoped it would come in so that the work could be carried forward while the water was at a low stage as at present.
The steel piling was ordered from Pittsburgh, Pa., and as the government orders have precedence over anything else it is expected that it will not be long until the shipment reaches Waco.
With this leak closed, the lock and dam can be put into actual commission and used in backing the water up to Waco and above this city. It is hoped to be able to record the closing of the leak ere long and the commencement of the impounding of the water.

Scout Building Committee Makes Inspection Grounds

For the purpose of looking at the building sites in the Jim Baker park, which has been turned over to the Boy Scouts for a term of years, the building committee of the Scouts, headed by Chairman W. L. McReynolds, yesterday afternoon went to the park, accompanied by City Engineer George Gurley, and the situation was closely scrutinized.
"We shall have one of the prettiest and most picturesque sites in the United States for our Boy Scouts," said A. L. Elliott, a member of the building committee, yesterday, and those who are familiar with the wild and rugged beauty of this spot will fully agree with Mr. Elliott.
The building when erected will have a gymnasium, and the physical development secured by the boys will be one of the many benefits to be had.

WILL WAGE CAMPAIGN FOR ORPHANS' HOME

REV. JOSEPHUS LEE OF DALLAS,
REPRESENTING METHODISTS,
IS MAKING PLANS.

Propose to Raise $15,000 in Waco for Completion of Brick Building
Already Begun.

Rev. Josephus Lee of Dallas, who has been in the city since Sunday, said yesterday that plans were rapidly being completed for a campaign in Waco for $15,000 to be used in the completion and furnishing of a two-story brick structure at the Methodist orphanage on Herring avenue.

In discussing the proposed campaign, Mr. Lee said that the orphanage was much more of a strictly Waco institution than is usually realized. Of the thirty to fifty orphans which are taken into the institution each year, about one-third of them are Waco children. Dr. R. A. Burroughs, the superintendent, estimates that within the past few years something like $40,000 has been spent in Waco for supplies. There are three hundred thousand Methodists in Texas who are supporting this institution by sending in contributions for its running expenses, and Mr. Lee said that it was insisted that Waco ought to help complete the buildings as a pure business proposition.

Business men and individual leaders of the Y. M. B. L., with whom he had talked, spoke very favorably of the campaign, said Mr. Lee. More and more the orphanage is being recognized as an asset to the city worth-while, he thought. The institution makes no denominational distinction in accepting orphans, in fact, there are no questions asked. If there is room, the little one is taken in. The school facilities are declared to be first-class through the seventh grade, and the aim is to turn out children who will make good citizens. It was stated that visitors are cordially welcomed at the institution, and it is hoped that Wacoans will become more familiar with the orphanage and the work that it is doing.

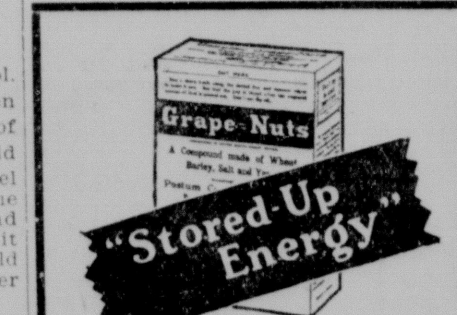

Mr. Lee, who is commissioner in charge of the orphanage's finance, will head the campaign and he will return within about two weeks to complete arrangements for the beginning of the effort to raise the $15,000 needed. He will present the matter to the two commercial organizations and will confer with the city pastors. The campaign will be launched with a big rally and some prominent Methodist leader will probably be secured for an address. The first week in October has been tentatively agreed on as the time for starting the campaign.
The Methodists outside of Waco are said to be interested in seeing what this city is going to do for the orphanage, and Abe Mulkey of Corsicana has pledged that if Waco will raise $25,000, he will secure a similar amount with which to enlarge the institution.

Teachers' Exams Will Begin August 31

The teachers' examinations will be held August 31, September 1 and 2, the call having been issued by County School Superintendent R. L. Abbott. The white applicants will take the examination in the Baylor library, while the colored applicants will be examined at the county court house. The following is the order of the subjects:
Thursday forenoon: History of education, physics, solid geometry, American literature.
Thursday afternoon: Physiology, chemistry, bookkeeping, plane trigonometry.
Friday forenoon: Physical geography, physiology, composition, arithmetic.
Friday afternoon: Texas history, plane geometry.
Saturday forenoon: Spelling, writing, methods and management, civics, reading.
Saturday afternoon: United States history, general history, agriculture, algebra.

Our Opening Display of Men's New Felt Hats for Fall

Kenwick Hats $3.00

Roxton Hats $4.00

Knox Hats $5.00

Stetson Hats $4 and $5

It is with a feeling of pride that we announce our formal opening display of Men's New Felt Hats for Fall. Our showing is complete, leaving nothing that is new in style to be desired. Not just one line or one novelty, but four complete lines of four of the best and most favorably known hats produced. These four brands set the pace in style and quality and we are proud to feature them.

Not a new novelty omitted. To really appreciate our large variety of shapes and styles you must see and try them on.

In the extreme novelties crowns are somewhat lower and creased and brims are wider and flat set. The style shows the tendency toward a military effect.

In the more conservative styles the brims are somewhat narrower and they are shown in flat and curled edges. The colors include all of the new shades of green, also pearls, blue grays, belly and staple black, blue and brown. The bands are in shades that match the hats or in pretty contrasting colors. We invite Your Critical Inspection of Our Larger Displays of New Felt Hats for Fall.

UNIVERSITY SUMMER GRADUATION TODAY

The annual summer commencement of Baylor university will be held this morning, the exercises beginning in Carroll chapel at 10 o'clock.

According to the regular plan for the summer school, the exercises for the morning will take up the entire commencement program.
The musical features of the program will be a vocal solo by Miss Juanita Smith, and a violin solo by Prof. Anton Navratil. Miss Smith is a graduate of the Baylor fine arts department, and is well known in Waco as an accomplished soloist. Prof. Navratil's many fine concerts at the university have endeared him to Waco people. These numbers will probably attract many from the city. Of especial interest, of course, will be the address by Dr. John C. Grandery of Southwestern university. As head of the department of political science in that college, he has made a reputation as a speaker and as a man who is much interested in progress in politics and school affairs. Those who know him commend very highly his ability as a speaker.
The procession will be organized in the Carroll Science hall at 9:30, and will, as usual, be made up of the members of the university faculty, board of trustees, and guests of the university, followed by members of the graduating class. Of these there will be at least twenty, which makes the summer class of 1916 the largest summer graduating class in the history of the university. Friends from the city are especially invited to be present and celebrate with the Baylor community the close of this very successful summer school.

Call meeting of J. H. Gurley Lodge No. 337, A. F. & A. M., will be held at Masonic Temple, corner of Eighth and Washington streets, at 7:50 p. m. Work in E. A. & M. degrees. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

Eighty Cattle to Be Dipped at Tick Demonstration

The tick eradication demonstration which has been arranged for next Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, on the Aquila Stock farm, ought to bring out a large number of stockmen, stock farmers and others interested in the eradication of this cattle pest, and doubtless this will be the case.
Dr. A. H. Julien will conduct the field day demonstration, which has been arranged by J. A. Pipkin, Jr., special agent of the United States department of agriculture. About eighty head of cattle will be dipped at this time, and the demonstration will be accompanied by a talk on the plans and merits of this manner of getting rid of the ticks.
All interested parties are invited to be present on this occasion.

Clay Street Revival Grows in Interest

The protracted meeting at the Clay Street Baptist church is progressing nicely, and interest is growing each day, while the attendance is steadily increasing.
Rev. W. B. Holland, pastor of the church, is doing the preaching, and there is special music at the services, which is an enjoyable part of the worship. Morning and evening services are held, and all indications point to a successful revival.

Huaco Caddies Will Enjoy Tournament

The boys who "caddy" for the golf players at the Huaco club, and who carry the "sticks" and chase the balls, are to have a day given to them this week and will be the club's guests in a tournament at which medals and prizes will be given.
The boys will go on the links tomorrow, Thursday, and will contest for the prizes which are to be offered. There was a tryout yesterday on the links to see which boys would enter the first division, and this resulted in the following qualifying for the first division: Garland Armstrong, Harry Lee Whitman, Douglas Rowell and Stanley Musslewhite. There also will be about a score of boys in the second division, and they are anticipating a good time Thursday.

The final rounds will be played off Thursday morning, and there also will be races matched among the caddies. This day will be in connection with the ladies' day which has been frequently mentioned, and which is in the nature of a Red Cross benefit.

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change
of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

—Mrs. E. H. BEAN, 525 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a pure remedy containing the extractive properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, meets the needs of woman's system at this critical period of her life. Try it.

Snaman Returns After Studying Eastern Millinery Market

Snaman's, on Austin street, was a busy place yesterday, and Mr. Joe Snaman was delighted with the showing which was made, feeling that his buying trip to New York and the large purchases made were justified by the conditions existing in Waco.

Mr. Snaman was absent about seven weeks, and said yesterday that the prosperity in New York was something wonderful, and the outlook as bright and rosy as it could well be. Money is easy, said Mr. Snaman, and everybody is feeling that this country is on the eve of a great business and industrial forward movement.

At Snaman's it is believed that there will be shown the prettiest and most stylish lot of ladies' ready-to-wear and general millinery to be seen in Central Texas, and the extensive buying of Joe Snaman was of the latest and most beautiful designs in all lines kept at this great emporium. He has rare experience in this line, and feels that nothing is too good for Waco and the people of this territory.

Lions Club to Hear Talk From President Texas Ball League

Walter Morris, president of the Texas baseball league, has accepted an invitation to be the guest of the Lions' club luncheon at the Raleigh today, and he will speak on "What a Good Ball Club Means to a City." His address will be an "extra" on the regular program.

The toastmaster for the luncheon will be R. S. Vaughan, and P. S. Durham will be the regular weekly orator. His subject will be "Joanna and Insurance."

D. P. Wallace will furnish the thought for the day.
T. A. Hooks will tell the Lions what success he had in spending five dollars at the Gray & Smith grocery store. Mr. Hooks received his "five dollars" from the sale of goods from the Style Shop to N. D. Naman. This little weekly skit of "Trailing the Dollar through Waco Business" will be a regular feature of the luncheons.
J. P. Everett, newly elected secretary, was active yesterday in boosting for a full attendance of the membership at today's meeting.

Letter Indicates Early Arrival of Supplies for Dam

A letter received yesterday by Col. W. W. Seley from Col. W. J. Barden of Dallas, who is now in charge of the Brazos river as far down as Old Washington, advised that the steel sheet piling needed for stopping the leak which was found in the dam had been ordered, and that he hoped it would come in so that the work could be carried forward while the water was at a low stage as at present.

The steel piling was ordered from Pittsburg, Pa., and as the government orders have precedence over anything else, it is expected that it will not be long until the shipment reaches Waco. With this leak closed, the lock and dam can be put into actual commission and used in backing the water up to Waco and above this city. It is hoped to be able to record the closing of the leak ere long and the commencement of the impounding of the water.

Scout Building Committee Makes Inspection Grounds

For the purpose of looking at the building sites in the Jim Baker park, which has been turned over to the Boy Scouts for a term of years, the building committee of the Scouts, headed by Chairman W. I. McReynolds, yesterday afternoon went to the park, accompanied by City Engineer George Gurley, and the situation was closely scrutinized.

"We shall have one of the prettiest and most picturesque sites in the United States for our Boy Scouts," said A. L. Elliott, a member of the building committee, yesterday, and those who are familiar with the wild and rugged beauty of this spot will fully agree with Mr. Elliott.
The building when erected will have a symposium and the physical development secured by the boys will be one of the many benefits to be had.

WILL WAGE CAMPAIGN FOR ORPHANS' HOME

REV. JOSEPHUS LEE OF DALLAS,
REPRESENTING METHODISTS,
IS MAKING PLANS.

Propose to Raise $15,000 in Waco for Completion of Brick Building
Already Begun.

Rev. Josephus Lee of Dallas, who has been in the city since Sunday, said yesterday that plans were rapidly being completed for a campaign in Waco for $15,000 to be used in the completion and furnishing of a two-story brick structure at the Methodist orphanage on Herring avenue.

In discussing the proposed campaign, Mr. Lee said that the orphanage was much more of a strictly Waco institution than is usually realized. Of the thirty to fifty orphans which are taken into the institution each year, spoke very favorably of the Waco children. Dr. R. A. Burroughs, the superintendent, estimates that within the past few years something like $40,000 has been spent in Waco for supplies. There are three hundred thousand Methodists in Texas who are supporting this institution by sending in contributions for its running expenses, and Mr. Lee said that it was insisted that Waco ought to help complete the buildings as a pure business proposition.

Business men and individual leaders of the Y. M. B. L., with whom he had talked, spoke very favorably of the campaign, said Mr. Lee. More and more the orphanage is being recognized as an asset to the city worth-while, he thought. The institution makes no denominational distinction in accepting orphans, in fact, there are no questions asked. If there is room, the little one is taken in. The school facilities are declared to be first-class through the seventh grade, and the aim is to turn out children who will make good citizens. It was stated that visitors are cordially welcomed at the institution, and it is hoped that Wacoans will become more familiar with the orphanage and the work that it is doing.

Mr. Lee, who is commissioner in charge of the orphanage's finance, will head the campaign and he will return within about two weeks to complete arrangements for the beginning of the effort to raise the $15,000 needed. He will present the matter to the two commercial organizations and will confer with the city pastors. The campaign will be launched with a big rally and some prominent Methodist leader will probably be secured for an address. The first week in October has been tentatively agreed on as the time for starting the campaign.

The Methodists outside of Waco are said to be interested in seeing what this city is going to do for the orphanage, and Abe Mulkey of Corsicana has pledged that if Waco will raise $25,000, he will secure a similar amount with which to enlarge the institution.

UNIVERSITY SUMMER GRADUATION TODAY

The annual summer commencement of Baylor university will be held this morning, the exercises beginning in Carroll chapel at 10 o'clock.

According to the regular plan for the summer school, the exercises for the morning will take up the entire commencement program.

The musical features of the program will be a vocal solo by Miss Juanita Smith, and a violin solo by Prof. Anton Navratil. Miss Smith is a graduate of the Baylor fine arts department, and is well known in Waco as an accomplished soloist. Prof. Navratil's many fine concerts at the university have endeared him to Waco people. These numbers will probably attract many from the city. Of especial interest, of course, will be the address by Dr. John C. Grandery of Southwestern university. As head of the department of political science in that college, he has made a reputation as a speaker and as a man who is much interested in progress in politics and school affairs. Those who know him commend very highly his ability as a speaker.

The procession will be organized in the Carroll Science hall at 9:30, and will, as usual, be made up of the members of the university faculty, board of trustees, and guests of the university, followed by members of the graduating class. Of these there will be at least twenty, which makes the summer class of 1916 the largest summer graduating class in the history of the university. Friends from the city are especially invited to be present and celebrate with the Baylor community the close of this very successful summer school.

Call meeting of J. H. Gurley Lodge No. 337, A. F. & A. M., will be held at Masonic Temple, corner of Eighth and Washington streets, at 7:30 p. m. Work in E. A. & M. degrees. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

Eighty Cattle to Be Dipped at Tick Demonstration

The tick eradication demonstration which has been arranged for next Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, on the Aquila Stock farm, ought to bring out a large number of stockmen, stock farmers and others interested in the eradication of this cattle pest, and doubtless this will be the case.

Dr. A. H. Julien will conduct the field day demonstration, which has been arranged by J. A. Pipkin, Jr., special agent of the United States department of agriculture. About eighty head of cattle will be dipped at this time, and the demonstration will be accompanied by a talk on the plans and merits of this manner of getting rid of the ticks.

All interested parties are invited to be present on this occasion.

Clay Street Revival Grows in Interest

The protracted meeting at the Clay Street Baptist church is progressing nicely, and interest is growing each day, while the attendance is steadily increasing.

Rev. W. B. Holland, pastor of the church, is doing the preaching, and there is special music at the services, which is an enjoyable part of the worship. Morning and evening services are held, and all indications point to a successful revival.

The boys who "caddy" for the golf players at the Huaco club, and who carry the "sticks" and chase the balls, are to have a day given to them this week and will be the club's guests in a tournament at which medals and prizes will be given.
The boys will go on the links tomorrow, Thursday, and will contest for the prizes which are to be offered. There was a tryout yesterday on the links to see which boys would enter the first division, and this resulted in the following qualifying for the first division: Garland Armstrong, Harry Lee Whitman, Douglas Rowell and Stanley Musselwhite. There also will be about a score of boys in the second division, and they are anticipating a good time Thursday.

The final rounds will be played off Thursday morning, and there also will be races matched among the caddies. This day will be in connection with the ladies' day which has been frequently mentioned, and which is in the nature of a Red Cross benefit.
